

SENATE DISCUSSES POSTOFFICE AFFAIRS

Sundry Civil Bill Occupies Time of the Members of the House.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Senate today began consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill and it was the signal for a revival of the Democratic demand for an investigation into the charges of corruption in the Postoffice department.

The debate was initiated by Mr. Gorman, who spoke for almost two hours in criticism of the course of the Republican party in the Senate in refusing an inquiry, and at the same time charging the Postoffice committee with undue haste in reporting the bill, as he did the Republican side of the chamber, defending the Committee on Postoffice against the charge of haste, and also the Administration.

Mr. Lodge contended that Congress could not make an inquiry that would be as thorough as that already made by the Postoffice department. He charged the Democratic attack to a desire to find a political issue. The debate on the investigation proceeded at great length. Senators McCumber, Foraker, Gorman, Penrose, Lodge and Clay participating in it, the well-trodden ground being gone over again. Senator Clay insisted on the suspicion against Mr. Heath, former First Assistant Postmaster-General, in connection with his appointment of Mr. Louis as superintendent of supplies. Senator Scott closed the debate by saying that it never had been his purpose to believe a man guilty until he had been proven to be, although Mr. Heath may be all that the Senator from Georgia had charged him with. He read from a statement by Mr. Beach, attorney for the District of Columbia, to the effect that all of the evidence was before the grand jury and that it was regarded as insufficient to warrant the indictment of Mr. Heath.

The Senate at 5:30 p. m. went into executive session and at 5:45 adjourned. In the House.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Substantial progress was made today by the House in the consideration of the sundry civil bill, fifty-one pages being disposed of, leaving only twenty-one to be read. No amendments of general importance were made.

Mr. Bartlett of Georgia briefly replied to the statements of Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts, made last Monday on the negro question. He said that the Massachusetts member had lectured the South for disregard of violations of the law, whereas in the city of Marion, Mass., persons who had tarred and feathered a man and woman had been acquitted and were paraded through the streets as heroes. He believed that the people of the South are entitled to work out the negro problem "as God shall will it."

Mr. Crumpacker of Indiana declared that 3000 persons have been mobbed and put to death in the last twenty-five years in the United States.

RICH MAN MARRIED ON HIS DEATHBED

Special to The Tribune.
MANCHESTER, N. H., March 30.—George E. Hall, a wealthy business man of this city, died early this morning, aged 53. A few hours before his death he was married to Miss Jeannette Morgan, ten years his junior, who had been for many years his housekeeper, and he leaves her his entire estate.

Hall and Miss Morgan became acquainted more than twenty-five years ago, and those who knew them had long expected them to marry.

When Mr. Hall was seized with his final illness he immediately made all arrangements for the wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. T. at 1 o'clock in the morning. The dying man was barely conscious, and the whispered words "I do" were the last he spoke.

PARKER TAKES NEW YORK FROM HEARST

Friends Assert That Jurist Will Have a Working Majority in Democratic Convention.

NEW YORK, March 30.—A summary of the returns from the Democratic primaries held in the most important counties for the selection of delegates to the State convention, shows, according to the Herald, that the Empire State delegation to the National convention will be instructed to vote for Judge Allen B. Parker as nominee for President.

At the primaries so far 228 Parker delegates are counted as having been successful. As there will be a total of 450 the Parker forces claim they will have a large working majority in the convention.

The battle was the hottest of years and was fought for control of the State delegation between the adherents of Parker, as represented by David B. Hill, and W. R. Hearst at Binghamton. The Hearst men claim a victory. In several of the wards the primaries ended in a fight, and contesting delegations will be sent to the convention.

BRYAN TAKES HAND IN BENNETT WILL

Nebraska Attorney Meets With Rebuke by Connecticut Judge.

NEW HAVEN, March 30.—Further sensational incidents marked the second day's hearing on the appeal of William J. Bryan from probate in the Superior court today before Judge Gager. Former Judge Stoddard, counsel for Mrs. Bennett, and Mr. Bryan engaged in a wordy war during the morning session and the court had to intervene.

It followed immediately after reference to the correspondence between Mr. Bryan and Bennett had been made by Judge Stoddard, in which it was alleged that Mr. Bennett was brought to the point of writing the "sealed letter" by Mr. Bryan.

Judge Stoddard implied that Mr. Bryan was withholding his contents and said "If this man insists upon getting $50,000 from the widow by suppressing facts and showing these letters were written at his behest the court should know the facts."

Mr. Bryan jumped to his feet and insisted that Judge Stoddard had misstated the facts, but the court ordered him to sit down.

The day was taken up entirely by arguments on the question of admitting the "sealed letter." Judge Stoddard concluding the argument that he began yesterday. He was followed by Attorney Hewitt, after which Attorney Newton addressed the court for over two hours, showing the relation between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Bennett, the reasons for appeal and facts to show that the admission of the "sealed letter" as evidence is proper law.

After Mr. Newton had concluded, Judge Stoddard replied briefly.

When the arguments were concluded Judge Gager adjourned court until tomorrow.

Judge Gager will rule on the admission of the "sealed letter" tomorrow morning.

A Thoughtless Druggist.

ONLY a thoughtless druggist would offer a preparation without the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher when Castoria is called for; the "delicate, faint and flickering light" that joins baby's life to its devoted parents being too sacred to the self-respecting druggist, to be trifled with.

For over thirty years Mr. Fletcher has given, and still gives, his personal attention to the preparation of Castoria. It has won the confidence of mothers and physicians everywhere—never harmed the tiniest babe. This cannot be said of Imitations, Counterfeits and the "Just-as-good" rot.

The thoughtless druggist only offers the counterfeit because of a few pennies more profit. Any new preparation can be but an experiment, and they are experiments—mere guess work—irrespective of what their sponsors may say for them. It is experience of over thirty years, against wild and injudicious experiment.
